About the Camps

The Bethel Christian Basketball Camps strive to provide opportunities for players to grow spiritually as well as athletically. Campers receive instruction from Christian coaches and Christian basketball players who will promote spiritual growth. The instruction is nondenominational so that players from all church backgrounds feel welcome. The players will experience an environment that provides both challenge and encouragement.

About the Camp Fee

The total fee for each basketball camp is $350. This fee includes instruction, room, board, insurance, T-shirt, awards, and full use of the Bethel University facilities. A $100 deposit is required with each registration. This amount is deducted from the total fee and is nonrefundable. Registration forms will be accepted in the order received until the camp limit of 140 is reached.

A camper instruction sheet (including what to bring and what not to bring), directions to Bethel, and a daily schedule will be sent upon receipt of the registration form.

About the Facility

The Bethel Christian Basketball Camps use the facilities of Bethel University—a beautiful, wooded campus on the shores of Lake Valentine in Arden Hills, Minn. The campus has an air-conditioned gymnasium with two full-sized basketball courts, a 50,000 square foot fieldhouse with four full-courts, a training room, locker room with shower facilities, weight room, and air-conditioned classrooms. Campers are housed in air-conditioned residence halls with two or three campers per room, and are provided plenty of nutritious food in the Dining Center.
